

Abacus Worldwide wins the 2018 Digital Accountancy Forum Award for “Rising Star Association of the Year”:

The Accountant & International Accounting Bulletin have revealed the winners for the 6th annual edition of the magazines joint awards. This year’s winners were commemorated at a gala dinner ceremony at the Waldorf Hilton, London on Thursday 04th October 2018.

The awards celebrate the best among firms, associations, networks and individual professionals in the accounting market globally that are successfully serving their clients through innovation and thought leadership as well as those that are strengthening the profession relevance in its mandate to serve the public interest.

We are pleased to announce that Abacus Worldwide has won the 2018 award for “Rising Star Association of the Year” in recognition of their impressive development and regional initiatives. Abacus connects accounting and law firms globally, facilitating knowledge exchange and better assisting clients with cross border and multi-jurisdictional needs. Julio Gabay, Abacus Worldwide President and CEO stated: “Abacus was founded only 6 years ago and today this award acknowledges the star members within Abacus. Without their engagement and desire to better service client needs, this could not be possible. We are creating a truly unique global business association and are confident Abacus will have many more rising-star years ahead.”
