"As a leading law firm based in Santiago, Albagli Zaliasnik serves a myriad of clients locally and internationally from start-ups to family businesses as well as global corporations. Over the years we have redefined the way we provide legal services always developing new and innovative ways of working with our clients. We also realize the world has changed with more complex markets and client needs and it is more important than ever to be connected globally with other likeminded professionals. Joining Abacus Worldwide, allows our firm to leverage the strength of a multi-disciplined, multi-jurisdictional network of legal and accounting firms to better serve our clients. We are pleased to be part of this vibrant new association and look forward to working with other Abacus members." Rodrigo Albagli, Managing Partner, Albagli Zaliasnik

"Albagli Zaliasnik is an excellent addition to the Abacus family. They will be our first member in Chile and will help to strengthen our legal presence in Latin America and globally. They will certainly be an asset to our membership with their in-depth knowledge of the Pharmaceutical, Food and Beverage, and Retail industries as well as their expertise in corporate and transactional matters, commercial litigation, and intellectual property. We truly look forward to working with Albagli Zaliasnik and to further expanding the Abacus network." Julio Gabay, President and CEO, Abacus Worldwide
