"GP&A SAS is an accounting and auditing firm based in Bogota, Colombia. We pride ourselves with providing the best service to our clients locally and internationally having many years' experience serving clients from the USA, Spain, France, Germany, Brazil and many other countries. Joining Abacus Worldwide will now assist our firm in strengthening our international network. We are excited about the potential business connection to be made and look forward to working with other members in Colombia and internationally." Alfredo Gómez Duque, Managing Partner, GP&A SAS.

"We are pleased to announce GP&A SAS as our first member in Colombia helping to further expand the Abacus Latin American Region. I am confident they will be valuable members with their expertise in the Energy/Oil & Gas, Coal Mining and Trading industries and years of experience in Accounting & Auditing. We truly look forward to working with GP&A SAS and to their contribution as members." Julio Gabay, President and CEO, Abacus Worldwide
